The animation is a graduation work of the author (he studied in the National Academy of Theatre and Film Arts in Sofia, Bulgaria). It was made in cutout technique and originally it was shot on a 35 mm film. The animation got several prestigious awards in Europe and was shown on all inhabited continents of Earth.

Short Fairy-tales "Now listen!"

By Andrey Bakhurin

17 episodes, 17x 01:27

The collection of Russian folk tales will be appreciated both by children and by curious adults, willing to perceive the meaning of the "mysterious Russian soul" phenomenon. This is the encyclopedia of national peculiar features, shown in a light humorous manner; each tale lasts for one minute and is a whole story. Most of the tales are unknown to the general reader however each will seem familiar and recognizable. Smile! But probably with a secret sigh at the end...

Magic Pot

By Andrey Bakhurin, 03:35

Life is full of danger both for little animals and for little kids. But if you want to ride a horse really bad, you can make profit even out of the danger. Two little kids are striving to save the life of their kitty, but fall in the clutches of the evil babushka, crazy magician, who possesses the secret of the Magic Pot. However you never know who turns out to be more unlucky in this situation...

Shaman's Quest

By Artur Merculov, 2x 01:27

"We'll ride our reindeer fast through the snow in the early morning..." (chuckchee song)
Hard is the life of the Ultima Thule people!.. But the shaman knows the secret chords of the world, which helps him to fulfill his quest and find the way out of any situation, preserving the world's harmony. Everything's gonna be all right!
